Enfield Mass. June 21st 1916

Our first meeting after the club was formed was held at Mrs. Blair's home, June 21st 1916.

At this meeting the following officers were elected.

Pres. Mrs. Walter Blair.

Directors Mrs. F. E. Hamilton.

Mrs. F. E. Parsons.

Sec. Mrs. Harry Franke

Social Com. Mrs. A. Richardson

Mrs. A. R. Howe

We have held 8 regular meetings since the club was formed. Five at the home of Mrs. Blair, two at Mrs. Frank Hamilton and one at Mrs. Ed. Howe's. Our Dec. meeting was omitted on account of such bad weather that we tried at two different times to hold this meeting. Instead of our regular meeting, on Dec. we had Miss Hallowell, of the "Amherst Agricultural Extension Bureau" give a Demonstration in the chapel. which was much enjoyed by all present, which was about forty. Her subject being meat Substitutes.

And on May regular meeting in May, we had Mrs. Johnston of Hadley and Mrs. Graves of Sheffield give a talk on Economy in the chapel. Many helpful ideas and receipts were exchanged. One thing we must not forget to mention is that we were well represented in the 4th of July Parade, by a very pretty float which was trimmed by several members of the club. It was trimmed in green and white with an oval [illegible] with large letters of red, white and blue Mothers Club on it. Mothers and children sitting on the float, so that it was a Mothers float. Although we didn't get a prize it was considered a success.

Am sure we all wish to thank Mrs. Hamilton again for her kindness in inviting all the children, as well as mothers for a lawn party at her home for our July meeting. 30 mothers + 70 children were present. While the going on inside, Miss. Dorothy Ward entertained the children in the [illegible]. Music was furnished by Miss. Dorothy Ward & Mrs.

Ward. Mrs. Ward also gave a very helpful talk on the training of children.
Ice cream cake was served.
At one meeting Mrs. Boggs, a missionary from China talked to us about the Chinese ways and customs
and showed us many things from China. It was all very interesting.
Miss. Nellie Brown gave us
an interesting and instructive
talk on "Tithing" at our June meeting. Also was very thoughtful [illegible] subscribing

for two magazines for the club.
"The American Motherhood" and
"The Kindergarten Magazine"
The average attendance at
our meetings has been good.
We now have 96 members.
I think this can be counted as a successful year for the "mothers club" which I think, we will all agree has largely due, to the kindness of our Pres. in opening
her home, to us, and her faithfulness and perseverance in keeping the work along, with the help of the Directors & Social committee as well as all the mothers, who have been so free hearted in furnishing such an ample supply of refreshments

Enfield Mass Nov 21 - 1911

A regular meeting of the Y.W.C.A. club was held in Chapel. Mrs Bliss opened meeting in due form and introduced Miss Harriman of Amherst College as speaker for the afternoon, who gave us a very interesting & instructive talk upon the health of women in the home. We were told this talk would be of no use to us, unless we faithfully followed the instructions given, among the most important being, the daily bath & thorough ventilation of bed chamber, & that every woman should take some exercise for her daily health. For what is needed when work but more strength & energy than we have physical & to do this, we should use our mental energy to find ways to relieve us of all bodily strain, such things suggested were to stand straight sitting & lying, the dress and to walk while working & to stand straight and erect as many do. She also spoke of the power of will & how we should use that power in regard to these & other things & that we might overcome many of our tendencies & weaknesses.

Miss Fairman also spoke of the need of training the children in personal hygiene, also that children in rural districts were handicapped as there is the city as other medical conditions were strongly impressed in Jamaica and in the City of Jamaica with the parents to see that this was done. A motion for at least 1 week once another year was strongly advised by her that this should be done this take a whole day frequently, the case of the feet was also brought that we should not permit the raising of high heels in center of instep and should be sure to get a shoe that will fit as well, as this is the cause of much trouble among women in general. Mention was also made of first aid stations with bring made that some canned fruits & vegetables were poisonous, the said 2 cups of water before breakfast one before dinner one before supper & one on retiring with blindy fruits & vegetables would relieve constipation. Meeting then closed in due form with 43 members & guests. Dr. [illegible] a fine collection of bees, Secretary [illegible] with their receipts were on exhibition and were well tasted. A social hour then followed in which every one enjoyed themselves.

Enfield Mass. Dec. 27-, 1911.

A regular meeting of the Mothers Club was held in the home of Mrs E. A. Howe with 23 members & guests and 5 children present. Mrs Bliss the President called the meeting to order and had the usual devotional service reading from the 21st chapter of John, also speaking of the adaptability of this chapter to the present times and conditions, that we should live more with Christ and let Him work through us, if it be His will. Papers were then offered after which the Secretary's report was read and approved after which Miss Hazeltine favored us with a piano solo. Miss Alice Lawrence then read a paper on the [illegible] after which Miss Hazeltine [illegible]

as checks for the attorneys, [illegible] brought to
to the brethren the message from a little book called
"Thoughts for the Times of the world." Also talk-ing of what the conditions will be at the close of the war, urging upon all the necessity of preparation, that Satan should find us prepared in every sense to engage successfully [illegible] that the Church should receive letters then to know what we should do in every part of the field. Also that that they may be made settled. Brethren will have to provide the Sabbath teachers for

The Sec. report was then read. Mrs. Bliss led the devotional exercises. She compared our hearts to a bed of Coals. Some times we have heatless days in our hearts but we should pray without ceasing and the sparks are the little prayers going up to God we should make our heart glad by giving. Mrs. Bliss offered prayer. Mrs. Perkins read Current events. Mrs. Bliss read a letter from Self Government as against Government by Authority, and a discussion followed. Mrs. Gaffer read a poem also a paper entitled "Mrs. Sobriety" and a story about "Mr. Industry" very good. Some prints in the discussion were very good to remember such, get the children to want to do right, train them will, then give him good ideals, train the will not break it. In some cases it is better to divert the attention of a child to make it do what we want. Tell him why we don't want him to do a thing. Sometimes let children find out by their own mistakes. Music was furnished by Miss Barbour, a social hour followed.

Mrs Harry Hanks Sec. Pro. Tem.

March 30- Was an open meeting held in Chapel with a good attendance, The speaker for the afternoon was Miss Harriman to whom you need no introduction, she gave us a very interesting & instructive talk on the preparation and combining of different foods to obtain a balanced ration, after which meeting was closed in due form with a social time following.

Annual Report of Mothers Club for 1917-1918.

Enfield, Conn. June 15. 1918.

Fifty regular and two special meetings of the Mothers Club have been held during the year. The meetings were well attended, and the interest has been unusually good. The Mothers Club has been of great assistance to the Efficiency Club this year. Through the Mothers Club the Efficiency Club has furnished [illegible]

[illegible] Quarterly Meeting, Sick Meetings, have been very acceptable and instructive to all who have attended. We have received several new members, and four have passed from time, while two poor young brethren have been called to that bourne of many mansions, from whence there is no return by the messenger for those departed.
The meetings here had a good attendance
and while we have met with losses and crosses in many ways we cannot but feel they have been blessings and helps for a continuance in the future.

The Mothers' Meeting was held with Mrs. Bliss. The report of the Sec. was read and accepted.

Mrs. Bliss conducted devotional exercises her subject being taken from Mark 10 about Blind Bartimaeus. As the man of old prayed for vision so we, mothers, should pray for a larger vision, a truer conception of God, that we may lead our children to Him. Mrs. Parsons read two articles, The Ideal Mother and Seventeen Rules for Mothers. Mrs. Broom read several short, humorous articles.

A social hour followed, enjoyed by all.

Enfield, Mass.

Owing to the weekly meetings of the Clothing Efficiency Club and the bad weather, no Mothers' Meetings were held in Jan. or Feb. but on Mar. 31 one was held in the Chapel, with Miss Nellie Brown as speaker.

All ladies interested were invited. Miss Brown's talk on Child Problems was very interesting and helpful. I wish more might have heard her.

Mrs. Hewitt gave piano solos.

About twenty adult and several children were present.

After the meeting closed - a social hour with refreshments was enjoyed.

The May meeting of the Mothers' Club was held in the Chapel. Although a small meeting it was a very helpful one. Mrs Dennick and Miss Bruce served refreshments.

Annual Report

Although the Mothers' Club has not held all its regular meetings this year it has, nevertheless been a successful year.

The meetings which have been held have been very helpful and generally well attended.

The Clothing Efficiency Club and Millinery Class, both started by the Mothers' Club have been very successful. I believe Miss Harriman says, that some of the best work done in this county has been done by the Enfield club. perhaps one thirty & thirty five books, more have been helped by these classes so we are really very glad to have started these classes.

We are sorry that we can't have Mrs. Bliss as our leader another year, but we are going to try to manage without her, because she wants us to, and wherever she may be, the good wishes of the Enfield Mothers' Club will go with her.
